

Scholarships for international BSc and MSc students

General

International students with permit B must also apply for a scholarship in their home country and proof their efforts.

ETH scholarships are granted as secondary source of finance and do not cover the whole living and studying costs. They are eligible up to the end of the regular duration of studies set out in the respective programme regulations, plus two semesters (in relation to the entire duration of studies).

Eligibility

- Non-Swiss BSc students after having passed the first-year exams (all parts).
- Non-Swiss MSc students without an ETH-BSc degree after successful completion (min 40 KP) of the preceding master study year.

Examinations

Non-participation on examination(s) due to illness must be proofed to us with a medical certification, issued not older than one day after the planned exam.

Application period

From 1 September until 31 October 2024 for the academic year 2024/25.

Electronic application

eStip: Follow the instructions and upload all necessary documents in pdf format.

Documents needed

- Form "Evidence of assets", completed and signed by parents
- Internship contract (if any)
- Decree of orphan's pension/old age pension/alimonies (if any)
- Evidence of transport costs (if domicile is not in the City of Zurich)

Upload all documents in pdf-format and provide a translation into English or German. We accept your own translation on the document.

Re-calculate all amounts to Swiss Francs.

Own situation

You are asked to describe your financial and personal situation and how you financed the last (resp. first) year of your studies. This decreases inquiries from our side.

Specific questions and problems may be reviewed during our office hours (Mon & Wed 11-13h, Tue & Thu 13-15h) or by appointment.

Study achievements/records

In addition to the financial statements the performance of your studies will be included in the application process.

- Bachelor: passed the base examination (all parts).
- Base examination plus 4 semesters minimum of 120 credits (incl. first year exam).
- Master: minimum 40 credits in preceding master study year
- Master: average: 20 KP/semester

Complete documents must be submitted until October ,31 2024.

The decision is published for download in eStip.

ETH scholarships are paid in one or two instalments within the academic year of the application.
